U. S. CENTS.

The Property of S. H. & H. Chapman.

These cents have been accumulating with us for the past two years, being remainders that were not fine enough to place in our cabinets, or of too common dates,—from collections we had purchased; from hoards, and the numerous lots that constantly come in, but from which very rarely a single rare coin is obtained. All the very poor (with the exception of the very early dates), all which do not show date, the pierced, bruised or damaged, have been carefully removed. Small dealers or those persons who have customers who are not wanting very fine specimens, will find the following lots to be a good purchase, as there are many desirable pieces among them. The average condition is very good. Some poor, some fine.

723 1793 (does not show date) to 1857. 1799 very poor and doubtful. No 1804. 500 pcs.
